What does Beaumont do well? 56 responses

- Everything
- What doesn't Beaumont do well is a more pertinent question! I love Beaumont School it is second to none, always striving to push the children further and helping them to reach their potential - I am so grateful that my children go to Beaumont 😊.
- Learning
- Happiness
- Promoting good social development
- I like how Beaumont has such high standards for everything and how hard the children work toward meeting the standards Past two years have been very challenging but With all the help and support the children have done so well picking up and getting back into normality well done Beaumont !
- Character education and the clubs are well organised and there is lots of choice. Plus the sports provision is excellent, my child has moved to this school from another primary school and the education at Beaumont is first class!
- Identifying and supporting my child in subjects, he needs extra help in. Recognising when he has done well.
- Give confidence to my child by encouraging them to be their best selves.
- Communication, extracurricular activities, reading
- The communication between parents and teachers. The size being small it's like a small family where everyone knows each other
- Together
- Growth and learn
- Character Confidence
- Equality
- Strong supportive teachers
- The teacher and head are really invested in the children.
- Help child to adapt to all learning
- Parent teacher engagement. As a parent, you feel that issues are listened to.
- Very good at making sure children achieve.
- Promotes confidence to "be yourself" and accept and celebrate others. Celebrates positive behaviour and hard work. Offers a lot of extracurricular experiences.
- Confidence
- Everything mentioned in Beaumont values.
- Having after school clubs.
- Encourage my child to be more confident in her learning.
- Makes learning fun

- Friendly school, however, the school should be outstanding as it does not have to deal with challenges that other inner city schools do, but disappointingly it remains consistently Good :-{
- The communication between the parents and teachers (eg. teachers generally always available at drop off or pick up). Introducing new ways of thinking. Awarding/acknowledging the children for good work or for their positive attitudes towards various tasks/lessons.
- Supports every child on their learning journey
- Growth mindset and confidence are the strongest
- Listens/takes into account your concerns/actions to resolve
- Always supportive, there to help and always doing what is best for pupils.
- Fantastic communication and providing additional support for my children who struggle via the interventions or extra tutoring
- Communication between parents and the child
- Respect

What could Beaumont do better? 35 responses

- Nothing
- More trips out for the children
- According to my child he would like slightly longer lunch so has a little more time to finish his food, he must be talking more and eating slow but as a parent I feel my child is really happy with everything and has no complaints thank you.
- Just keep doing more of what you do!
- Less focus on homework
- Encourage the pupils to celebrate their diversity.
- Differentiated homework for SEN, spelling tests that are accessible for all
- NA
- Too many messages becomes confusing
- If there was a possibility of allowing weekly flexible meals, especially with the introduction of halal meals. It would be great if for example we could choose which 2/3 days our child could have a hot meal. Unfortunately, a commitment for a whole half term/term isn't possible but a couple of times a week would be.

- Help children build confidence - encouraging less confident children to have bigger parts in assemblies to build confidence - sometimes it feels like the same children have the bigger parts every year. More opportunities to develop speaking skills.
- More condensed correspondence - sometimes we get 3 or 4 ParentApp messages a day.
- As far as I am concerned, Beaumont is doing brilliantly in every aspect of schooling
- Offer my children clubs as they do get full very quickly
- Maybe a few more trips in the year
- Having an Eid Party for kids as many kids in school celebrate Eid.
- Encourage children to celebrate their diversity.
- Offer competitive sports and be better prepared competing with others e.g. practice ahead, sport kits, transport etc. When they play together, it feels like individuals coming together, rather than being a team. This maybe the same within the school which then translates into a Good school rather than outstanding.
- Consolidated comms.
- Home work
- I would request if school can teach kids on positive thinking, meditation, Breathing techniques as Mental Health issues are on rise. These fundamentals should be part of curriculum as they help to build child's strong foundation and we have scientific evidence now that they help to keep our minds on positive calm track
- Should teach other languages
- Less apps for homework too much technology
- Maybe look to consolidate communication to parents.
- Pushing children to the maximum they can achieve
- See above - I think Beaumont excels on every level
- Nothing - continue being brilliant ☐
- More focus on homework, currently it's very light with spellings and a topic question. Would like homework set on the topic they have learnt to firm their understanding with specific questions rather than generic do Mathsflex or read about a topic.
- Less pa connect msgs
- More summer trips
- Would be helpful to receive homework earlier in the week so that it can be completed before the weekend - leaving weekends as family time. Pressure to complete homework over the weekend in case pre learning is for subjects on Mon/Tuesday. Many children have clubs eg. swimming, gymnastics over the weekend so doesn't leave a lot of time for family time.

Our response:

Our commitment to you is that we will take all these comments on board and work towards the improvements that have been suggested, if they are in the best interest of the school.

The outstanding status for Ofsted is also the aim for the governors and I. We are due a visit from Ofsted next academic year however, we are in an unfortunate situation with regards to the timings. This is because the process of moving from good to outstanding has to be proven over two inspections that are at least two years apart. This intends to prove the school is outstanding over a period of time rather than a one off visit like previous inspections.

We are aiming for outstanding and this survey is more evidence to prove we are an improving school in which parents are overwhelmingly happy with the education and experiences we provide for the Beaumont children.

Thank you for your continued support, as we could not do it without you!
